

ORIENT

Reports of the Society for Near Eastern Studies in Japan

---

Volume XLII

2007

---

SPECIAL ISSUE

Birth and Succession of Holiness among Sufis and Saints

- |  |                        |
|--|------------------------|
| Preface  | Yasushi TONAGA         |
| How to Become a Saint through Silence andImmobility  | Abderrahmane LAKHSASSI |
| Narrating Tales of Saints Is Making Saints:Three Different Hagiographic Traditions ofa Muslim Saint in the Egyptian Desert | Masayuki AKAHORI       |
| The Sufi Legend of Sultan Ibrāhīm b. Adham   | Tsugitaka SATO         |
| The Logic of Succession in the Case of ChineseMuslims during the Qing Period   | Tatsuya NAKANISHI      |
| Politics, Poetics and Pop in the Succession of HolyRelics: Examples from South Asian Muslim Society                            | Sachiyo KOMAKI         |

ARTICLES

- |  |                    |
|--|--------------------|
| Distribution of Life Force in the Festival of the Valley—A Comparative Study with the Opet Festival— | Masashi FUKAYA     |
| Maqāma as a Courtroom Play—Disguised Hero, Duped Judge  | Keiji OKAZAKI      |
| The Official Historiographers in the Ottoman Empire:the Formation Process and Their Ideas            | Hiroyuki OGASAWARA |

The Society for Near Eastern Studies in Japan
(NIPPON ORIENTO GAKKAI)
9, Kanda Nishiki-cho 1-chome,
Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, 101-0054