

ORIENT

Reports of the Society for Near Eastern Studies in Japan

Volume XLIII

2008

SPECIAL ISSUE

Egyptian Archaeology: The New Light on Theban Studies

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| Preface | Michinori OHSHIRO and So HASEGAWA |
| Palaeolithic Culture and Society in Nile River Valley | Ryuzaburo TAKAHASHI |
| The Thebes-Armant Region during the Predynastic (Naqada) Period in Egypt | Izumi TAKAMIYA |
| Conservation of the Wall Paintings in the Tomb of Amenophis III | Sakuji YOSHIMURA and Akiko NISHISAKA |
| Four New Kingdom Vitreous Artifacts of Amenophis III from Nariwa Museum: A Tentative Interpretation of Synchrotron Radiation X-ray Fluorescence Analysis | Kyoko YAMAHANA |
| Kharga Oasis and Thebes: The Missing Piece of the Puzzle in the Relocation of Amen Worship in the 27th Dynasty? | Michinori OHSHIRO |
| Thebes and Middle Egypt in the Hellenistic Period: An Archaeological View | Yoshiyuki SUTO |
| Some Aspects on Material Culture in Roman Village Site at Theban Area | So HASEGAWA |

ARTICLES

- | | |
|---|------------------|
| Demotic Matrimonial Property Contracts Recorded in the sⁿḥ -documents: A Re-examination of the Term “ sⁿḥ ” | Ikuyo KATO |
| Position of Arabic in the Literatures of the Christian Orient: The Case of the Life of Saint Macarius the Egyptian | Satoshi TODA |
| The Private Property and Awqāf of the Circassian Mamluk Sultans: The Case of Barqūq | Daisuke IGARASHI |

The Society for Near Eastern Studies in Japan
 (NIPPON ORIENTO GAKKAI)
 9, Kanda Nishiki-cho 1-chome,
 Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo, 101-0054